Excise tax collections for the first five months of 1961 amount to $15,821.34, which is $375.42 less than for the same period a year ago.

Ten day notices to persons who are delinquent in payment of their 1960 real estate tax will be sent in the near future. Costs may be avoided by prompt payment of any balance due the town.

Sincerely,

Gould Academy Ends 125th Year

Gould Academy this past week end marked its one hundred and twenty-fifth commencement with ceremonies attended by a large gathering of parents, alumni and friends.

The annual Class Day ceremonies were highlighted this year by a humorous panel show in which students posing as educational experts fielded queries posed by members of the graduating class. Headmaster Edmond Vachon accepted for the school the class gift, a lectern, presented by Class President Frederick Lincoln. The program ended with the presentation of the usual year-end awards. The seniors then left for the annual senior picnic, held again this year at The Cape on Thompson Pond in Otisfield. The senior classes of the past several years have been fortunate to have the use of the facilities provided there by Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Bean.

The athletic portions of the Alumni Day program were curtailed by rain, but the weather did not seem to diminish the large number of returning alumni who took part in the remainder of the activities. At the annual meeting of the Alumni Association the officers elected for 1961 were: President, Dexter Stowell; Vice President, Edward Wheeler; Treasurer, Faye Taylor; Member of the Athletic Council, Robert Kenston; Secretary, Francis Berry. The Executive Committee is composed of Daniel Wight, Albert Merrill, Maxine Brown, Herbert Morton, Jr., Barbara Hathaway, Leland Brown, and Theodore Chadbourne. Class secretaries are: 1922, Ethel Ward, Harold Bennett; 1927, Wallace Saunders, Bertha Mills; 1932, Lucia Tikander, Franklin S. Chapman; 1937, Rita Davis, Rodney Howe; 1942, Alzena Sargent, Irving Cummings; 1947, John Brown, Virginia Walker; 1952, Norman Ferguson, Jr., Phyllis Cross; 1957, Ann Greenleaf, Catherine Robie.

Highlight of the Alumni Luncheon was the unveiling of a portrait of Paul G. Thurston, president of the school's Board of Trustees. The accompanying remarks were given by Dr. Sidney W. Davidson, chairman of the board. Guest speaker was John Gould, noted humorist, author and editor, who delivered ered to an appreciative audience his summation of history's many foibles. During the luncheon the graduating seniors were officially welcomed to the Alumni Association.

Although the heavy rain forced the cancellation of the alumni baseball game, it did little to deter the large numbers who attended the Headmaster's Tea and the Commencement Ball that evening.

The Baccalaureate Service was held in the West Parish Congregational Church, the sermon delivered by The Reverend Frederick D. Hayes, D. D., of Auburn, Maine. The Reverend Richard M. Hamilton and The Reverend Clifford W. Laws also participated. As has long been customary, the service was concluded by the singing of the Gould Hymn, written by Doris Lord, '20.

The commencement exercises were held under cover of a large tent erected in the center of the campus. The invocation by The Reverend Clifford W. Laws and a selection by the glee club preceded the salutatory address given by Louise Kennedy. The commencement address, titled "The Boardwalk and the Sea," was given by Dr. Val H. Wilson, president of Skidmore College and father of a member of the graduating class. Following the valedictory address by Ann M. Ordway, Mr. Vachon announced the names of those winning top honors in each class.

The ceremonies were concluded by the awarding of diplomas.

WINNERS IN DENTAL HEALTH POSTER ART CONTEST

Mrs. Marah Webster, Miss Velma Spencer, and Mrs. Kimball Ames met last week to select winning entries in the Dental Health Poster Art Contest.

Being the first such undertaking in this area, it was planned, as nearly as possible, for each class, or room, depending on the number of children concerned, to compete only with their class, or roommates, having available similar materials and resources. Absence of a formal art program in the school system also made it impossible to divide the competition in any other way. Many ingenious and meaningful entries were received, showing both artistic values and assimilation of health facts.

Mrs. Dexter Stowell, president of the Bethel Health and Service Council, visited the schools on Monday to present silver dollars to the winners, and to recognize those whose entries received honorable mention by the judges.

At the East Bethel School the winner was Florence Kimball, honorable mention, Terry Swan.
